ART STUDIOS

ESTD 2024

About the Studio

The Deep Art Studios was born out of the desire to see people of all ages, skill levels, and walks of life find the simple joy that is painting. To give all people a moment to rest and reflect, and to focus on what matters most. A momentary breath of fresh air from a life of hurry and exacerbating pace.

Everyone can be a painter.

In these classes I will show you techniques to elevate your work and create something YOU love. You get to choose the colours, the art style, the composition – based on your preferences and personal taste. You create for your spaces. We will get to look at some different examples of art styles, and you will create whatever you most resonate with. Whether you came to do some deep self-expression, or just to yap with your bestie – I am here to support you to get out of the class what you came for.

One of the key things we focus on is the importance of colour in the creation of painting pieces, and how it contributes to the overall tone and mood of your final painting. We look at movement, texture, and light – think Impressionism and abstract expressionism.

The painting journey is about you finding joy and grounding in the present moment. It's a metaphor for trusting the process and accepting your authentic expression as beautiful and sacred as it is. There is no pressure to create a specific result or receive a certain outcome – it's about trying something new and curiously engaging with the experience of painting.

It's about authentic connection, self-expression, and grounding in the present.

I can't wait to paint with you.

Making a Booking

Gather your friends

Find a crew that you would like to paint with, around 5-10 people works best for the class! But feel free to message if you have something different in mind - I'm sure we'll be able to make your vision work!

Message your interest

Let me know you are keen, and I will send through some potentially available time slots.

Choose a time, date and location

Chat to your friends to choose a place to paint (remember I come to you!) and a date & time that works for everyone. I'll need to know what kind of space you have, your suburb, and the names of all your friends (and any other info you think I should know!).

Choose a class

There are a variety of classes on offer for you to try! Look through this folio with your friends and choose which one you would like to do.

Come and paint!

On the day of our class, I will come 30 mins earlier to set up the space and make sure we are ready to go. You set up your own drinks and food, and we will make sure we have a great time! Classes will go for 2 hours.

still life and tablescape painting class.

This classic form of painting is revamped and expanded to include modern and trending styles, and a variety of fun subjects. I will set the table with a variety of subjects, ranging from bowls of fruit to an array of empty jars.

Ranging in techniques from abstract to textured to realist – this class is suitable for everyone, from beginners to experts. You can choose to paint anything you see in front of you as we explore all the different ways we can translate reality onto a canvas.

It's the most diverse and unique class there is, with lots of room for creativity and self-expression.

landscape painting class

This desert landscape painting class is our most laid back and easy going class there is! We will have you looking at the desert at every different angle, and appreciating the gentle beauty it bestows on us.

This class has emphasis on capturing the vibrancy and beauty of a simple scene, with a practice of capturing movement and light through different brush strokes. This class is most suitable for beginners as well as our outback enthusiasts and desert contemplators.

floral painting class

Paint some flowers to freshen your space. A 2 hour class where you look at a variety of styles and techniques to paint a beautiful floral arrangement.

Seasonal flowers are the key subject for this class, with focus on capturing texture and form. We'll learn to paint in an abstract expressionist style, with broad brush strokes of movement and colour. Perfect for your living room or quiet space.
